PLEASE NOTE: Student Riders are taught by instructors participating in the Centered Riding Instructor Course, under supervision of the Clinic Instructor(s); lessons are usually 30 minute private lessons. An important purpose of these lessons is to give Participating Instructors practical experience in teaching Centered Riding basics and bodywork.

The fee for participating as a student rider is $275. Each student rider will receive one private lesson each day of the clinic as well as participate in ground work exercises and audit instructor rides. This fee also includes lunch. If you wish to bring your own horse, there are stalls and paddocks available for rent through the BEC office. Stalls are $35/night and paddocks are $25/horse/night. If you need to lease a lesson horse, that fee is $35/day.
